

WINE ENTHUSIAST[®]

MAGAZINE

May 2016

91

POINTS

The Calling

2014 Pinot Noir

A generously fruity, just-ripe and refined wine, this offers classic notions of the appellation in a warm, welcoming vintage, from rhubarb, cranberry and cherry to cola spice and clove. Still young, it shows an intensity that should meld and mellow in the bottle in short order.

—V.B.

