The Calling

2014 Sullivan Vineyard Chardonnay

The 2014 Chardonnay Sullivan Vineyard is scented of spicy oak, baked peaches and dried pineapple with wafts of ginger, croissant and honeycomb. Medium to full bodied with a seductively oily texture, it fills the mouth with generous honeyed-peach, tropical fruit and toasty oak flavor, finishing long and spicy. It is delicious now for those that love a little oak expression, otherwise that oak should marry in a year or so, revealing more of an opulent fruit expression. - LPB
