WINEMAKING PHILOSOPHY
Josh Cellars is a negociant brand, so we don’t own a winery or any vineyards, much like some of the world’s greatest chateaux in Bordeaux & Burgundy. We do, however, work with California’s best growers to build a superior wine blend. Our winemaker spent over a decade making sparkling wine at one of the world’s largest and most prestigious champagne houses, where blending distinct lots is essential to making great wine. Those experiences make him uniquely qualified to source and assemble wine blends of great character and complexity, in the signature Josh Cellars style: fruit-forward and rich, with approachable tannins and a long finish.

PROFILE
Josh Cellars’ first wine from the cool, Alsatian-like climate of Columbia Valley. Pale straw in color with notes of mango, citrus blossom, and banana in the nose. On the palate, a medley of tropical notes continue with good acidity from the cool Columbia Valley nights.

DEFINING CHARACTERISTICS
The tropical aromas and acid structure make this a natural pairing for seafood, pastas, and cheese. Try with sauteed scallops, Fettucine Alfredo, or roasted butternut squash.
