

My father's name was Joseph, but his friends just called him JOSH

My dad left me a valuable gift, his core values. It is his legacy and those values that guide the way I try to live my life. Like a lot of sons and daughters, I wish I could go back and say thank you a few more times. I made Josh Cellars Legacy, a red blend from my favorite California grape varieties, as a celebration of great dads everywhere. It's big and vibrant but always approachable, kind of like Dad. What better way to honor his legacy, than to share it with you...
