Joseph Carr Facts

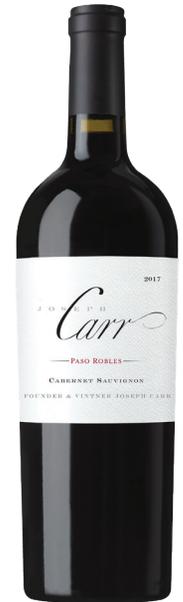

- After 20 years in the industry, first as a sommelier and then working directly with wineries, Joseph Carr followed a dream to make his own wine in Napa Valley
- In 2002, he decided to pursue his passion, learning to make wine alongside Ted Edwards at Freemark Abbey
- Joseph Carr employs a European sensibility in winemaking that emphasizes balance, complexity, and elegance to produce high quality, hand crafted, ultra premium Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay at exceptional value
- Joseph Carr sources fruit from California's finest appellations – the St. Helena, Rutherford, Stags Leap District, Oakville, Carneros, and Paso Robles AVAs
- Carr and winemaker Wayne Donaldson's relationships across Napa Valley give them access to lots of wine that could have gone into $100 bottles but instead are blended to make Joseph Carr Wines
