Villa Pozzi Facts

- The Pozzis are a 5th generation wine producing family.
- Villa Pozzi is located in Sicily, where winegrowing dates back to 1500 BC.
- The Pozzis' ancestors traveled all over Italy as wine merchants until they came to Sicily and fell in love with its warm people and outstanding food and wine and decided to make it home.
- All grapes for Villa Pozzi are grown in Marsala, in the northwest of Sicily.
 - ✦ Vineyards are 900 ft above sea level and feature sandy, clay, and limestone soil
 - ✦ All grapes are hand harvested at night or in the early morning to maintain freshness
- Originally constructed in 1860, Villa Pozzi's modern winery at Cantine Europa was completely rebuilt in 2000.
- The line is comprised of four varietals – Nero d'Avola, Pinot Grigio, Moscato, and Cabernet Sauvignon.
- Villa Pozzi's wines are made to be enjoyed upon release and have a ripe, fruit-forward style. They pair perfectly with your favorite slice of pizza!
